PRICE OF WHEAT NOW DEFINITELY FIXED

The price of wheat in Canada will be $2.24½, and will be officially announced on Thursday. This is the contention of the grain growers and agricultural grain commission which adjourned till Thursday after making this recommendation to Ottawa. No objection has been urged. The present price is $2.21.

ALBERTA TO SEND TWO PLATOONS TO SIBERIA

Word has been received at military headquarters at Calgary, according to official notice forwarded to The Bulletin, that the Alberta military district will contribute one company headquarters and two platoons for the Siberian contingent. The intention is to raise the battalion by voluntary enlistment.

Returned soldiers physically fit and others not at present liable under the Military Service Act, will be given the first opportunity to enroll and draftees will afterwards be given an opportunity to volunteer subject to later instructions from Ottawa.

All further information that is available can be had by application to the D. A. A. and Q. M. G. M.D. 13-403, Travis building, Calgary. Draftees applying should do so through the officer commanding their unit.

THE THIRD ANNUAL SCHOOL FAIR

The third annual school fair at the School of Agriculture, Clareholm, will be held on Friday, Sept. 6th, 1918.

The pupils of twenty-five rural schools in the vicinity of Clareholm, Staveland, Parkland, Grassam, Cammang and Harens are competing in the raising of vegetables, flowers, grain, solis, calves, chickens and in the making of exhibits of cooking, sewing, canning, butter-making, weed collections and insect collections.

The rules governing the Fair are as follows:

1. Competition is open to pupils of the schools mentioned in this prize list.
2. Vegetable and flower exhibits must be from the seeds distributed by the Department of Agriculture.
3. Pupils who received seeds must exhibit samples of the products.
4. No entry fee will be charged for any exhibit.
5. All exhibits must be the work of the exhibitor, or in the case of live stock and grains, his or her parent's property.
6. Exhibits of live stock must have been fed and cared for by the exhibitor since July 1st.
7. An entry ticket must be attached to each exhibit.
8. Each exhibitor must arrange to bring its own exhibits to the Fair.
9. No exhibitor may make more than one exhibit in one class.
10. All exhibits, except live stock, must be delivered at the School of Agriculture, Clareholm, on Thursday, September 6th.
11. Live stock and poultry exhibits must be delivered not later than 11 a.m. on Friday, September 6th.

Programme
Friday, September 6th.
9 a.m.—Judging vegetables, flowers, grains, etc.
1:30 p.m.—Judging live stock and poultry.
2:30 p.m.—Address.
Admission free. Everybody welcome. For further information, apply to Mr. J. C. Hooper, School of Agriculture.

Several hundred of 15,000 officers arrested in Moscow, have been shot, according to a letter written in Moscow on August 14 by Dr. Alfonso Paquet, and published in the Frankfort Zeitung.

S.O.S. COMPETITION

At the third annual school fair to be held at the School of Agriculture, Clareholm, on Friday, Sept. 6th, one of the features will be contests at the following character open to the Soldiers of the Soil only.

1. Harnessing and hitching a two horse team to a wagon. Each team to be equipped with a full set of harness including breeching. Teams, wagons and harness to be provided by contestants.

2. Digging a post hole 2½ ft. deep and setting a post. A long handled shovel is the implement to be used. Shovels to be provided by contestants.

3. Getting up supposedly at 5 a.m. at the call of the farmer, pulling on a pair of overalls, rushing out and saddling a pony, and riding once around the ring.

Overalls, saddles and ponies to be provided by the contestants.

4. Getting washed and combed for supper. Each contestant is expected to have sufficient machinery grease on his face and hands to make it a fair contest, and to make him look like a real busy farmer. Any modern invention for removing the grease from the skin may be used, but must be provided by each contestant.

5. To eat a piece of pie and on finishing whistle. The pies will be provided by the S. O. S. committee.

Liberal prizes will be given to the first second and third winners in each contest.

The local S. O. S. committee expect to take advantage of this occasion to present to S. O. S. boys who have served on farms for three months or who expect to do so, and who have rendered satisfactory services to their employers, the badges of honor provided by the Canada Food Board for this bit of national service done. Each S. O. S. boy who has completed three months service on a farm will kindly fill in his employee fill in and sign certificate of Service and present it on this occasion. Boys who have not completed three months service but who expect to do so, may have their employers fill in these certificates dated in such a way as to show three months work which the boys guarantee to complete and present them on this occasion.

These contests have been carried out at other places with great success. It is up to the S. O. S. boys of this district to make good and enter in these contests, and see that the contest at Clareholm fair take second place with none of them.

Make your entries with Mr. R. K. Peck, local secretary of S. O. S., as soon as possible.

CUTTING OFF TOO MANY TRAINS

Residents of the southern portion of the province have registered very vigorous protests with the head officials of the C. P. R. regarding the threatened reduction in the passenger service which is proposed to take effect when the new time table comes in. That bustling organization the Lethbridge Board of Trade, is heading the agitation.

It is pointed out that the passenger, mail and express service will be worse under the proposed schedule than it was even in 1910, when business was much worse than it can be during this season. The Lethbridge people are suggesting that the present schedule should be maintained at least until the harvest is over and then the whole matter could be taken up again.

The people in the south are protesting very strongly. They say the railway company was very prompt in raising the passenger and freight rates and in return they think the company should give a reasonable passenger service.

We beg to announce a new service.

PROCLAMATION

GEORGE the FIFTH, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these presents shall come or whom the same may in any wise concern,—GREETING:

A Proclamation of conditional amnesty respecting men belonging to Class I under the Military Service Act, 1917, who have disobeyed our Proclamation of 13th October, 1917, or their orders to report for duty, or are deserters or absent without leave from the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

R. L. NEWCOMBE, I HEREBY consider, Deputy Minister of Justice, Canada, a large number of men belonging to Class I under our Military Service Act, 1917, called out on active service in our Canadian Expeditionary Force for the defence of Canada under our Proclamation of 13th October, 1917, although they have thus become by law soldiers enlisted in the Military Service of Canada.

Have failed to report for duty as lawfully required of them under the said Military Service Act and the regulations thereunder, including the Order in Council duly passed on April 20 last.

Or have deserted, Or absented themselves without leave from our Canadian Expeditionary Force.

And it is represented that the very serious and unfortunate situation in which these men find themselves is due in many cases to the fact that, notwithstanding the information and warning contained in our Proclamation aforesaid, they have misunderstood their duty on obligation, or have been misled by the advice of ill-disposed, dilatory or seditious persons.

AND WHEREAS we desire, if possible, to avoid the infliction of the heavy penalties which the law imposes for the offences of which these soldiers have thus been guilty, and to afford them an opportunity within a limited time to report and make their services available in our Canadian Expeditionary Force so as to lay their bounden duty, and as is necessary for the defence of Our Dominion of Canada.

NOW KNOW YE that we in the exercise of Our powers, and of Our good will and pleasure in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare and cause to be published and made known THAT THE PENALTIES OF THE LAW WILL NOT BE IMPOSED OR EXACTED against the men who belong to Class I under our Military Service Act, 1917, and who have disobeyed our Proclamation aforesaid, or who have received notice from any of our registrars or deputy registrars to report for duty on a day now past and have failed so to report, or who, having reported and obtained leave of absence, have failed to report at the expiry of their leave, or have become deserters from our Expeditionary Force, PROVIDED THEY REPORT FOR DUTY ON OR BEFORE THE TWENTY FOURTH DAY OF AUGUST 1918.

AND WE DO HEREBY STRICTLY WARN AND SOLEMNLY IMPRESS UPON ALL SUCH MEN, and as well those who employ, harbour, conceal or assist them in their disobedience, that, if they persist in their failure to report, absence or desertion until the expiry of the last mentioned day, they will be pursued and punished with all the rigour and severity of the law, SUBJECT TO THE JUDGMENT OF OUR COURTS.

MARTIAL WHICH WILL BE CONVENED TO TRY SUCH CASES or other competent tribunals; and also that those who employ, harbour, conceal or assist such men will be held strictly accountable as offenders and subject to the pains, penalties and forfeitures in that behalf by law provided for their said offence.

Provided however that nothing contained in this Our Proclamation is intended to release the men aforesaid from their obligation to report for duty as soon as possible or to grant them the expiry of the last mentioned day, in the meantime for the purpose of compelling them to perform their military duty. Our intention being merely to forego or remit the penalties heretofore incurred for failure to report, absence without leave or desertion incurred by those men of the description aforesaid who shall be in the proper discharge of their military duties on or before the said twenty-fourth day of August, 1918.

Of all of which Our loving subjects and all others whom these presents may concern are hereby required to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of Canada to be hereunto affixed. Witness Our Right Trusty and Right Entirely Beloved Counsel and Counsellor, Victor Christian William, Duke of Devonshire, Marquis of Hartington, Earl of Devonshire, Earl of Portland, Baron Cavendish of Hardwick, Baron Kensington of Kensington, Knight of Our Most Noble Order of the Garter, One of Our Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Knight Grand Cross of Our Royal Victorian Order, Governor General and Commander-in-Chief of Our Dominion of Canada.

At Our Court House, in Our City of OTTAWA, this FIRST day of AUGUST, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and in the ninth year of Our Reign.

By Command,

Thomas Mulvey

Under-Secretary of State

"CARRY ON" FOR THE VICTORY TO COME

If one can judge correctly from the newspaper reports, the Claresholm which was recently held at Vulcan, Lethbridge, and Nanton was far superior to the one held in Claresholm. The platform orators especially seem to be of a much higher order. Chief among them was Edward Trefz, a magnificent orator. Mr. Trefz opened his address at Lethbridge last week with these striking words:

"The United States have no political treaties. We are bound to stay in this war until the people of Germany change their government, because we cannot deal with the present, Imperial German government."

Mr. Trefz dwelt particularly on his experiences on his recent trip to France and England, and as an official representative of his government. His story of conditions in England and France, particularly of her people, particularly of her womanhood brought home to many for the first time a true realization of what the war meant. The flower of English womanhood, the most beautiful girls in the country, are wearing gas masks and garb and manning the high explosive plants where death faces them every second. They have parted with their flowing hair, their skin in time becomes permanently stained a chrome yellow, due to the poisonous fumes, but they still press forward to sacrifice themselves for the sake of the boys.

These are the women who have been used to cultured and domestic life, but the spirit of war has enthused them.

On the farms the women of Great Britain again have done their share. The farmer's wife was supposed to take the place of two men at the front, but the veritable farmer's wife takes the place of each of these women soldiers of the soil has by her work proved herself equal to two men. They have increased the crop acreage by 3½ millions.

How near Great Britain was to starving through the operation of the U-boats was related by Mr. Trefz. He was part of a delegation from the British government to visit households from slum dwelling to lordly mansion. Everywhere was the same tale. Not enough on the table to go around the family. But there was no complaint. For the whole continent knew nothing of the privations. With stiff upper lips the people went through their hardships in the spirit of "carry on" for the victory that was to come. Women of fashion were content to dress in the style of two years ago. There was choice of only two materials for men's clothes. The same strict regard to boots and shoes. It was a case of black or tan, not black and tan.

Mr. Trefz sarcastically referred to the mode of women who still persist in this continent in wearing high-heeled shoes, "spiral elevators," he called them, and in the practice of selecting the color of shoes that match their dresses. No wonder, he said, people clamor about high prices in shoes when the merchant had to stock to meet individual tastes, and took the chance of having to carry over the stock to the next season. So long as these discriminate tastes were insisted on the price of shoes was bound to remain high.

The subject that most stirred the audience was the speaker's personal experiences of the German atrocities. "You may receive anything you hear of them," he declared, "for they are capable for the worst."

One of the incidents he related was that after the German evacuation of certain Belgian towns and villages. After the evacuation all they could, the German soldiers scattered around in front of the houses something that looked like a pencil. It was nickel-plated and naturally attracted the eyes of the children. They picked them up and picked them up, and then they wrote on the point of the "pencil" came in contact with resistive substance, the fulminating cap fired, and all that remained of the hand that held it was a torn and bloody stump. Thousands of children were killed in this way, because medical aid was unavailable, and others mutilated. There were French children walking with amputated arms. Pointing to these they say, "See what Boche has done."

Mr. Trefz sent a thrill of horror through the audience when he related what he saw in 1915 on the railroads near Metz. The deported women of Northern France were made to work on the railroads side by side with male criminals who were released from prison for this work. This was not sufficient to break the spirit of these noble women of France. The Germans, accordingly, when the day's work was done, handcuffed each woman to a criminal and they were thrown together to spend the night on the straw in the barns.

Mr. Trefz eulogized the Canadians for their magnificent work. He paid a noble tribute to the work at the famous battle of Ypres who after the fearsome gas attack without gas masks placed their socks and handkerchiefs over their faces, and with ammunition stored out, and short of rifles, pulled off branches from the trees and took possession of the German front line trenches.

Mr. Trefz also paid a tribute to the efforts of America's effort in this war. Not, he remarked, in a spirit of brag but as an encouragement to the Canadians in sustaining their gallant deeds. He raised a mighty cheer when he stated that they have a force on the continent a few thousand over one million and a half men.

GRAIN TAKEN TO BRITAIN BY PANAMA ROUTE

The absolute feasibility of shipping grain and flour through the Panama route to the United Kingdom has again been established today by a report received from a shipping concern which has just landed a large consignment of grain and flour from the United Kingdom port. The cargo consisted of 54,000 bushels of grain, which was shipped in 100,000 sacks, and 1,500 tons net. It was purchased as an experiment by the Government and was shipped three months ago from Vancouver. After a thirty-two days' voyage, which included nine days spent in various ports, the grain and flour was landed in great Britain. None of the grain was damaged, and it was in a highly satisfactory condition and was handled by suction elevator and landed on the British coast in perfect condition.

The flour, said the report, was also handled in excellent shape. A temperature chart showed the degrees of the vessels' hold as compared with the temperature of the sea and the atmosphere showed only one or two degrees variation on the voyage.

Belgium's Elizabethville

In one of the most beautiful English valleys, far from devastated Belgium, there is a little village where once more Belgian homes are established as in the peaceful days before the war. Belgian housewives delight to keep the home fires burning in a most attractive way, Belgian women return as of old at the close of the day to their own fireside and Belgian children, unafraid, gather about the family board and play as children should. The name of this little haven is Elizabethville, in memory of the dear little Queen of these exiled people. Just where the heart of Elizabethville is to be found is somewhat of a puzzle. Some might think it located in the great munition factory. Others would contend that the soul of Elizabethville is in its homes. To be sure the munition factory is there which gave the village its excuse for being. More than one and a half million shells have been made for England in this little town, and no one but Belgians are employed. They are men who have seen service—30 per cent of them, and at least three-fourths have been wounded. Four hundred men have been decorated for bravery.

In 1916 the weekly wage, in dollars for a heavy day's work of 1916 the weekly wage, in pounds, more than doubled the production of shells. Today, although the weekly wage has increased, the two things balance. The workers are under the control of the Belgian community, but the building of the village was under the supervision of the ministry of munitions. Elizabethville is "Garden City"—electric light and water are in each cottage and each has a little garden spot attached to it. It is furnished by the ministry and the weekly rent pays for everything. There is one general store and one butcher shop, one church, a school for boys and another for girls. There is a hospital where the sick are cared for by military surgeons. Boy Scouts have a flourishing company and the fathers can enjoy the games of their own children. There is most interesting feature is that Elizabethville has three communal dining rooms where the work is done with the successful. Food is good and the price is low.

TO TAKE CARE OF BABIES

Dr. Truby King who has made New Zealand babies famous and has won renown for his wonderful baby-saving work, has taken up the work of the British Government called him from New Zealand. Baby saving in England is to proceed strictly along up-to-date and efficient lines from this time on. Before going to England Dr. King toured the United States for the purpose of studying the Child Welfare work carried on there. His plan is to open a hospital, a clinic at St. Thomas's Hospital with a course of lectures on "Infant Care" given to the medical students, and to have a nurse in training at the hospital.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR PRESENT DAY WIVES

"How to Hold a Husband" is condensed into ten commandments for modern women by Rev. R. Knickerbocker, recently gave Los Angeles women the benefit of his experience in this matter.

1. Thou shalt have no other man except thy husband; neither shalt thou eye another.
2. Thou shalt not neglect thy home for a bargain sale, or club or suffragette propaganda.
3. Thou shalt not be a peach on the street, a pippin in society, and a lemon in the house.
4. Thou shalt not wear $50 bonnets and imported lingerie when thy husband wears $5 sock and hand-me-down trousers.
5. Thou shalt not play a bridge whist for gain, neither shalt thou sip the sparkling glass.
6. Thou shalt use the same blandishments on thy husband as thou didst use on thy sweetheart, and he shall always be thy lover.
7. Thou shalt not nag thy husband, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy servant.
8. Thou shalt suffer little children to come, for thy great love is for them.
9. Thou shalt not neglect to pray for thy children; neither shalt thou neglect to spank them.
10. Thou shalt not rear thy children by proxy, but thou thyself shall be their mother.

SUBMARINES DESTROY FISHING BOATS

Strong forces of swift naval patrol and destroyers speccing today to the Brest Atlantic fishing banks, where the trawler Triumph, captured by a German submarine, while the German submarine, which was manned here, is reported raiding fishing fleets. Naval officers keep the German trawler or trawler or her enforced destruction by the German crew is a certainty.

The steamer trawler Triumph, fitted with two guns and wireless and manned by 16 Germans from the submarine, which captured her, is raiding the fishing banks off the Nova Scotia coast. Crews of the schooners sunk by the Triumph have arrived here.

Vessels known to have been sunk by the raider are the U.S.A. P. Sanders, of Lunenburg, the E.P. Andrew, of Gloucester, Mass., and the Francis J. O'Hara, of Boston.

Captain Walker Bruce, master of the U.S.A. P. Andrew, said on his arrival that the vessel was held up by the Triumph yesterday afternoon, and that he and his crew were given ten minutes to leave the ship. The Germans then sank her with bombs.

The raider then bore down upon the U.S.A. P. Sanders and the J. O'Hara and sank them. The bodies carrying the crews of the two vessels were today recovered. Captain Myhrle, master of the Triumph, who landed with his men this morning, said he was followed by the captain of the submarine, which captured his vessel, that he was only one of six submarines operating on this coast.

"We intend to destroy the fishing boats," the German commander stated.

A Square Deal for the Community Builders

(Registered in accordance with the Copyright Act)

That each one of us must play our part, must do our share, to make our community life as near to the ideal as possible, is very true. It takes all classes to make up a desirable and progressive community.

But who is it, after all, who is utterly irresponsible to the welfare of your home town?

Who is it that is the real "U" in Community?

Is it not the man of business? Certainly!

In this age everything is subservient to Commerce. Commerce, define it as you will, sets the pace and we all come tumbling after.

This is a national truth, and a communal truth. We must bow to the fact.

Kill community commerce, and you have left—stagnation, decay.

We arrive then at the point where it behooves each one of us to ask ourselves: "What must I do to preserve the commercial life of my community, so that there will be advancement and life instead of rust and stagnation, and so that I shall obtain my just share of the prosperity and comfort of this life?"

The answer is not far to seek. In order to preserve intact communal attainments and institutions, and to stimulate the development of the germ of commerce, we must all perform a simple economic duty—the duty that every man and woman owes to his or her community.

Each one of us must assist in the generation of home trade, and in circulating the wealth of the community—the greatest possible extent. We must conserve at home the fruits of home production, in order that the necessary nourishment for healthy home growth be at hand.

We should make this our permanent policy—our unalterable resolve—and we should glory in the stand, for it will bring rich rewards.

Starve your home trade and you must "hit the trail" or dwindle of an empty stomach and shattered hopes.

Don't think you can get by if you simply buy the essentials of life at your home business places, while you send away for the cream of your requirements. No one can get half drunk and remain wholly sober.

The half drunk man cannot fool his family and friends very long; neither can the half-hearted business patriot fool the local business man or, more properly, local business conditions.

As the main stay of the community, the business man must have stability in evidence on all sides. No merchant can afford to put in large and up-to-date stocks unless he knows there is going to be a local demand for these goods.

The business man must have confidence in the town in order to go the limit of his community usefulness. We must back him up or he cannot back us. The arrangement must be mutual—the co-operation all-embracing the community pride and community loyalty make for permanency and growth and confidence.

With such a spirit, almost any community can get anything it reasons it has a mind to go after. The situation is in our own hands. As we stand at the base of a mountain we are awed by its majesty; having topped it, we recognize ourselves as its master. GET BUSY.

EXPECTED WAR YEARS AGO

The extent to which environment will warp judgement of even the greatest theologians and divines of the age is startlingly illustrated in connection with the present war, through the medium of a memorandum by Professor Sherrington, (Oxford University) of a conversation with Professor Troeltsch (Heidelberg University), in 1907. Professor Sherrington's account follows:

"Professor Troeltsch began by remarking that great conflicts which arise when an old world power is destroyed by a new one must always be accompanied by many sad events—the war between Germany and England will be a matter of regret to me, although I recognize it to be a necessity.

"On being asked why war should be a necessity, since no one in England thought of making war on Germany, Professor Troeltsch said:

"The war is a necessity for Germany, because England has so much that is absolutely necessary for Germany to possess in order to fulfill her role as a world state. I recognize that we are the possessions which Germany so much desired, Prof. Troeltsch said:

"Ports and colonies in many parts of the world: Australia, South Africa, Hong Kong, India. England is not really strong, but there has been no strong power to dispute these great sources of wealth with that is clearly Germany."

Professor Sherrington objected that the age is gone by when one believed that prosperity for one European nation could be achieved by its spoilation of another. Professor Troeltsch replied that with Germany it was not merely a question of spoilation. We live in a epoch when again, as often in past ages, great movements of a people depend on conquest. I regret the heavy strokes that have been given, I recognize that for Germany it is a necessity and that in fulfilling her destiny she will forward the history of the world.

"I shall regret it, but Germany has no choice. It is the movement of a people. It is a son tour."

WHAT AMERICA NEEDS

What America needs more than railways, extensions and western irrigation and low tariff, and a bigger wheat crop, and a merchant marine, and a new navy, is a revival of piety—the kind father and mother used to have—piety that counted it good business to stop for family prayers before breakfast, right in the middle of harvest; that quit field work a half hour earlier on Thursday night so as to get the chores done and go to prayer meeting; that borrowed money to pay the preacher's salary and paid reverently in secret for the salvation of the rich man who looked with scorn on such unbusiness-like behaviour.

That's what we need now to clean this country of the filth of graft and of greed, petty and big; of worship of fine houses and big lands and high office and grand social functions.

What is this thing we are worshipping but a vain repetition of what decayed nations fell down and worshipped just before their lights went out? Read the history of Rome in decay and you will find luxury there that is more than a big dollar over our little doughnut that looks so large to us.

Great wealth never made a nation substantial nor honorable. There is nothing on earth that looks good that is so dangerous for a man or nation to handle as quick, easy, big money. If you do resist its deadly influence the chances are that it will get your son.—Wall Street Journal.

Americans Heavy Smokers

The boys of the American Expeditionary force smoke 16,000,000 packets of cigarettes a month, the same period they dispose of 3,000,000 cigars, 463 tons of bar chocolates, and 60,000,000 sticks of chewing gum. They also chew 60,000 pounds of plug tobacco per month. Practically all these items have to be brought from the States. Flour and sugar, for cakes and confections is also imported and made into the finished product in France.

The Chicago boys recently decorated by King George for valor won their laurels because after being ordered out of the line on account of lack of training, they exchanged uniforms and incapacitated Australians, returned to the line, and helped take the town of Hammel, July 4th.

VERMILION BOY HAD ADVENTURE WITH GERMANS

A thrilling story of the adventure of a Vermilion boy at the front is told by a war correspondent in the Philadelphia Public Ledger. The writer says:

Private John Phillips, an artillery man in a regiment of heavy guns, living in Vermilion, Alberta, Canada, stole away from his battery on Thursday night in quest of souvenirs in trenches held by the Germans before the morning attack. He entered the mouth of a hillside cave, and near the entrance discovered the body of a German. Bending over to make sure that the man was dead and not in need of assistance, he was suddenly jumped upon by four Germans, who came from the rear of the cave. A terrific fight followed in the darkness, with Phillips using his revolver freely. In the end he came out of the cave with two prisoners leaving two more dead behind. When he presented his "souvenirs" to his battery commander he was forgiven for having taken absence without leave.

RURAL LIFE PROBLEMS

"Get together" is a useful and worthy motto for the farmers of Canada. Many of the disadvantages that have handicapped rural progress in the past have been the result largely of a lack of co-operation among farmers themselves. Local suspicions and jealousies made mutual trust the key-note of all co-operative effort, impossible. Happily, there are now many agencies at work that are each accomplishing some thing in changing these conditions. Among these, the Rural Community Life Institutes in Ontario give promise of being of great service. These are really extensions of the Department of Rural Sociology of the Ontario Agriculture College. A series of conferences is held at strategic points throughout the province each year at which experts in agriculture work and conditions discuss with rural ministers, teachers, leading farmers and other methods that experience has shown to be most valuable in bettering rural conditions. It is interest shown in these meetings indicates that these community leaders recognize the existence of rural social problems and are anxious to find the wisest solution for them. It will be a great day for Canadian agriculture and for the country generally when farmers get together for the study of their common problems and without malice or suspicion work together for the common good.

The new freight rate which went into effect this week raises the price of coal at most points about half a dollar a ton.

HUMOR EVEN IN MIDST OF WAR

A brace of big buck privates in a colored infantry regiment were sitting on the steps of a Y. M. C. A. hut at a camp in France when a gang of mixed Algerian and Moroccan duckworkers went by. The two privates stared at them in interest; they were new to France, the two, and somehow they didn't savey the fee caps and long flowing robes of the workers striding by.

"Say Boze, wha's they amny- how?"

"Deed, doan ask me," was the reply, I never saw no culled boys like they before."

One of the two, his curiosity getting the better of him, got up and sauntered over to the gang. For five minutes or more he sought to engage them in conversation, but somehow the brand of cornfield Texas lingo he had didn't seem to go. He returned to the Y. M. C. A. hut disgusted. "They's darkies alright only ah never saw or heard darkies like they. Man, they doan talk language; they's just mumble."

The other private got up and shuffled over to the gang. He too, seemed baffled, but a few minutes later the light of comprehension seemed to burst upon him, and he came scuffling back and said, "I see now, 'em. Den ain't no ordn' darkies. Den't Mystic Shrimers, and dat talk dy's talkin' is religious services."

Revival Meetings Close

One of the most interesting series of revival services ever held in Claresholm closed last Sunday night. They were interesting both from the standpoint of those who attended as well as those who purposely stayed away. Some of the most interesting addresses were given for the benefit of those who were not present. It took considerable courage to stay away, because, in any case, they would have gone away "mad." It took considerable courage to stay and listen while the speaker turned the X-ray on one's inner being and showed it to the audience. Yet that may be the only way to reveal to one the hidden cancer that is slowly destroying one's life. At any rate, after the operation there were many who had lost all conceit in themselves and were desirous of living humbler, better lives, so let's all say, "Here's luck" to the evangelist.

A stirring address was given, last Sunday morning, on the value of the Bible in the home and the necessity of taking the Bible itself rather than the various "isms" and keys to the scriptures. Interspersed with anecdote and song the service was one of the most interesting and impressive of the series. There is little camouflage about the evangelist, and preachers who left their work and went into business and Presbyterians who are not Presbyterians, took their medicine with good grace, knowing only too well how true were the charges. A suggestion, which doubtless would have opened the eyes of some in our locality, was made that the members of the Presbyterian church study the origin of their church and buy a copy of the shorter Catechism and read it. If the writer were a Presbyterian he would take this bit of advice and watch the result.

One could not but sympathize with the evangelist in the cold reception he got from many church members in Claresholm. As a leading member of the Chicago Presbytery, and one who is welcomed in almost any pulpit across the line, he should have been heartily endorsed by his own church in Claresholm. It looks like a case of "coming to his own and his own receiving him not." However, there were many publicans and sinners who welcomed him with open arms and who were helped by his services to better lives.

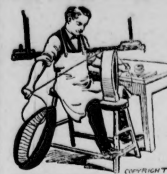

Mr. Miller has been very severe in his denunciation of the church members who spend Sunday in the hills fishing, of those who are careless about paying their debts, of those whose religion is mere form and who "deny the power thereof." He has scored without mercy the church members who attend dance and play cards, and who are slaves to sinful passions. But never during the services did he close a meeting without a loving exhortation to men and women to start on the right road to better lives.

The afternoon address, in which he gave an account of his life, was full of interesting incidents. His father was killed by the notorious bandit Jessie James. Thus left when a lad of ten years, his life, until past his teens, was full of hardships, until finally the way opened up for him to get an education and enter the ministry of the Presbyterian Church.

The evening service was the best of the series. There was a large crowd present and the speaker, catching the inspiration of the large audience, spoke with an eloquence and fervor seldom heard in Claresholm.

As a rule there is considerable criticism regarding the financial arrangements with the evangelists. In the meetings just closed there was very little emphasis put on the financial end. Collections were taken to meet the running expenses and when these were met no further appeals were made until the close of the meetings, when envelopes were passed around and everyone asked not to give unless they wanted to. About $200 was raised this way, out of which the evangelist met his own personal expenses.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller left on the early morning train for Three Hills where they will hold the next revival services.

Will YOU Give 3-1/2 Cents a Day to Keep

A Child From Starving?

If you will, read this appeal carefully then decide what share you will take in helping avert the greatest tragedy of all time.

1,250,000 CHILDREN ARE FACING SLOW STARVATION IN BELGIUM TODAY.

The Belgian Relief Commission has not the means to supply these growing children with the food that is necessary. THE SITUATION IS SERIOUS. This great relief fund has largely been administered through Americans; the break between the States and Germany has brought about a crisis; there is more need of funds now than at any previous time.

THE GREAT RELIEF WORK MUST AND WILL GO ON. WE MUST DO OUR SHARE.

At the present time the growing child in Belgium receives only a "hunk of bread and a bowl of soup" each day. If is not enough; they must have more—or starve.

For 3 1-2 cents a day the Relief Commission can supply one child with an extra "meal" of a biscuit made with fat and lard and a cup of cocoa, not much, but it is the difference between life and death, between health and disease, for the children of heroic Belgium.

ALBERTA HAS BEEN BLESSED WITH TWO RECORD-BREAKING CROPS.

We are prosperous—the future looks bright—we are in a position to help. How many starving children can you look after? How many will we look after?

HOW MANY WILL YOU FEED?

$12.00 a year, the price the Alberta farmer received for eight bushels of his wheat, will give this extra "meal" to one child for a whole year. 10c a day or $36.00 a year will keep three children from starvation. $60.00 a year will feed five; $120.00 a year will feed 10.

WERE YOU EVER HUNGRY?

Can you picture starvation, the pinched faces, the piteous cries?

IF THE CHILDREN WERE STARVING IN ALBERTA you would help—

YOU WILL HELP IN THIS CASE

You can't pass by the children's cry for food from starving Belgium!

AND YOU MUST ACT NOW

The thought that you are feeding some of these unfortunate children will bring you happiness. Think of the eager little hands reaching for the meal you supply.

Your own meals will taste sweeter when you do your share. The paper in which you are reading this is doing its share by publishing this appeal without charge—WHAT WILL YOU DO?

You may send contributions by the week, month, or in one lump sum. You are ASSURED that your money is used for the purpose it is sent.

THERE ARE HUNGRY CHILDREN AWAITING YOUR DECISION. HOW MANY WILL YOU FEED?

"THE LITTLE AMERICAN"

As an attraction extraordinary, Manager Edlund of the Rex theatre, announces his engagement of the new Mary Pickford picture, "The Little American," this production, it is generally felt, surpasses even the wonderful achievement of that masterpiece.

Popularly known as "America's Sweetheart," Miss Pickford presents a particularly fitting characterization in the title role of this new aircraft picture. Presenting a story of especial timely theme by Mr. De Mille and Jeanie MacPherson, this production, it is promised, will bring home most effectively, conditions involving the present great war, stirring views of remarkably spectacular war scenes, both on land and sea, as pictured in the most modern manner of photoplay technique.

As Angela Moore, our little American girl who braves the dangers of the war zone, "Our Mary" appears in what is readily thought to be the greatest dramatic effort of her career. In scenes that demand much of her histrionic finesse she offers a portrayal that is unlike anything hitherto given to the screen by this famous little actress.

In the production of "The Little American," various well-known authorities on conditions evidenced across the ocean, have collaborated with Mr. De Mille, with the result that even the most minute detail has been pronounced perfect. Again, the combined arts of Mary Pickford and Cecil De Mille have been linked together in the cause of the photoplay and judging from advance reports, this production will go down in motion picture history as one of its greatest works of art, as well as one of its most powerful appeals.

This above feature will be played at the Rex Theatre Friday and Saturday, August 30 and 31st.

War Notes

Since August 1st, there have been 10482 casualties amongst the Canadian troops at the front. 1604 of these have been killed in action. During the same period Canadian troops have captured 10,000 Hun prisoners, 150 big guns, and thousands of machine guns.

Draft evaders have one more day to report. A full and certain pardon awaits those who now respond to the country's call. After the 24th, punishment to the full extent of the law, awaits those who have failed to surrender themselves, and to those who shelter disaters after that date.

No recruits are now needed for the Royal Flying Service. Great gains have been the gains made by the Allies in their recent drive they have taken only a portion of the land occupied by the Germans since they left the Hindenburg line in March. Germany is far from defeated. It may take two more years of stiff fighting to finish the Hun.

At the Rex on Monday and Tuesday "The Daughter of Destiny" by Madame Petrova. This is one of the photo plays that everyone should see. Madame Petrova's reputation is worldwide.

The government's decision to release the members of the nineteen-year-old class will be received with general satisfaction. We must have soldiers but it is not necessary yet at least to conscript boys of this age.

MEADOW CREEK RIPPLES

The district Pound is doing very fine work and is deserving of high praise.

There has been impounded in the neighborhood of 70 head of cattle and 15 head of horses. This is showing the district that the pound is not all bluff and we are glad to notice that ALL the cattle are being looked after with care never before exhibited.

Mrs. F. L. Hamlyn and daughter are visitors with Mr. and Mrs. C. Hooper for a few days.

Mr. J. Bailey was a Calgary visitor on H. M. S. this week.

Mr. F. Downs is down from B. C. overlooking his fine crops.

Miss Annie Bagley is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Oliver.

Mrs. J. Thompson has postponed her trip to Peace River owing to the illness of her baby.

Harvest is on in full swing now and, we believe, the yield will do justice to all expectations.

Mrs. Marshall, a former resident of this district, is reported to be visiting with friends on the creek.

We see that threshing "rigs" are being overhauled in preparation for the coming harvest. We hear that man labor is very scarce. Why not give the girls a chance? They are all wearing overalls now, and proclaiming their ability to do a man's work. Why not give them a try?

Cutting is in full swing on the Creek now.

Owing to the pressure of home-keeping duties, the late correspondent fails to catch the "Ripples" on the Creek.

Some of the recent 'hill breezes' must have had some force, having planted Joe on the 'Ripples'.

Owing to the lack of field posts and wire, the pound keeper is being kept busy.

On the creek, Mrs. Dennis Carey spent Sunday on the Creek.

We would like to see a better attendance at church on Sunday afternoons at 3 o'clock.

The matrimonial fever is still raging on the creek. Ought to make out a casualty list.

Mr. F. Carey was a visitor on the creek Sunday. It's catching, Frank.

BULLETINS

The following Bulletins were published on Aug. 21st.

French troops continued their advance along whole front between the Oise and the Aisne, this morning. Carlepoint and Cuts have been captured by the French, according to the official report issued by the war office to-day.

After sharp fighting, ground has been taken west of Lassigny by the French, the statement says. The Germans made an attack after heavy artillery preparation on the new British positions south of the river Scarpe, but they were entirely defeated and the British retained every foot of their lines.

The line occupied by General Mangin's army ran from Semigny to Pontoise and then thence to La Pommeraye, Lonthoeux, Cuts, Camelin, Blerancourt, St. Aubin, La Tour Farm, Mont du Crocy farm, Vesaponin, Bieuxy, Laval and reached the Aisne at Courti.

No further details of the fighting north of the Aisne have reached London since noon yesterday. Reports were received telling of the capture of Achiet-le-Grand, but they have not been absolutely confirmed.

There was considerable artillery activity along the whole front of the Italian front yesterday, says the official statement issued to-day by the Italian war office. Enemy reconnoitering patrols on the banks of the Piave river were beaten back. Four hostile airplanes were brought down.

With the British army in France, Aug. 21—Field Marshal Haig's forces continued to advance throughout the day in the Somme sector of the Lys salient. They were closely followed by the retreating Germans, who seem to have gone back to an extreme depth of between three and four miles.

There are said to be more than 20,000 Canadians in the Royal Air Force, while 35 per cent of the flying officers at the front are Canadians. The young Canadians seem to have taken to air as fish does to water, and the record of his achievements in that branch of the service is one of the most inspiring chapters in the national war effort. News that a distinctly Canadian air force is to be organized will be agreeable to sentiment at home as it will undoubtedly be to the brave claps in the service.

Farmers are Stopping the Profit-Eating This Year

Comparatively few farmers fall or lose heavily because of adverse fortune such as fire, wind or drought. The majority of failures and losses are from combined little leaks, and it is the many little leaks that are being studied and stopped.

HERE ARE SOME OF THEM—Feeding Wastes, Diseases from Unsanitary Buildings, Unprotected Machinery. There are others but here are enough to kill the profits on any farm.

THE REMEDY—Concrete Granary Foundations and Floors, Concrete Barn and Hog House Floors, a Machine Shed. None of them are expensive and each will quickly pay for itself. Call and let us give you prices.
